

Brian "Mr.Unbreakable" Warren is a pastor and 2x championship belt holder in the Mixed Martial Arts (MMA) Industry. His passion is restoring confidence and manhood to God's men and raising up a generation of fatherless boys through conferences and training them both in and out of the gym. Brian teaches self-defense courses and runs retreats and bootcamps for men's groups. He is recognized as an inspirational speaker and an elite trainer to those fighting to take back their destinies. His book "Unbreakable Love The Brian Warren Story " details his fight career and how focused anger, when losing custody of his daughter in a divorce, brought out the champion within him. "What if our focus has been off? We've been taught in church to magnify our strengths and giftings, when all along it's our weaknesses and losses that have become our teachers," says Brian.
