

Gina Guy-Warren is the founder of Truth N Love Ministries. She is an author and powerhouse speaker. She operates in the prophetic and has been declaring for many years “from the Whitehouse, Courthouse, Church house, God’s cleaning all 3 houses.” The schoolhouse will not be exempt either. Together with her husband, Brian Warren, MMA Fight Champion, they defend, mobilize, train, and equip those who have been hurt by life and religion. Gina is a confidant to many leaders who suffer privately with addiction and mental health issues and offers counseling in all areas. Gina also founded The Word and the Workout, a unique fitness ministry bringing the church and gym together as one. She has even had the opportunity to train some members of the Homeland Security Team in Riverside, California. Gina has recently authored a 30-day devotional book by the same name, “The Word and the Workout Prophetic Insight into Physical, Emotional & Spiritual Fitness The Way of a Warrior” and “Tactical Journal.” Gina has traveled throughout many countries in Africa preaching crusades to thousands. She was Vice-President of an International Relief ministry where she preached and ran a health clinic in South Sudan. She was instrumental in the healing of the Congolese people in the wake of the devastating genocide between Rwanda/Congo, even founding a school in Congo where she implemented entrepreneur workshops for the widows and teachers. She is currently a writer for a homeschool app “Devote-Ed Academies” which offers community and biblical alternatives to public schools. Gina is the mother of two daughters as well as Brian’s daughter. Gina and Brian currently reside in Nashville, Tennessee.
